Recognition highlights Experis' breadth of services, strategic partnerships, and AI-driven technology workforce solutions

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 14, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- For the fourth year in a row, Experis®, a global leader in technology workforce solutions and part of the ManpowerGroup (NYSE: MAN) family of brands, has been named a Leader in Everest Group's U.S. IT Contingent Talent and Strategic Solutions PEAK Matrix® Assessment 2025.

The report cites Experis' ability to deliver talent across application, infrastructure, data, and automation services. Key industries served include banking, financial services, and insurance (BFSI), manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade, and healthcare. Experis' robust managed services and specialized practice areas — including tech transformation strategy, enterprise applications, cloud and infrastructure, digital workspace, and cybersecurity — were also key factors in the recognition.

Everest Group noted Experis':

- Specialized Centers of Excellence (COEs) to deepen domain expertise and drive co-innovation across service segments.
- Extensive technology partnerships with AWS, Microsoft, IBM, and others to modernize applications, prepare data for AI integration, and develop custom solutions.
- Strong consultant development programs including on-demand learning, mentorships, and a hire-train-deploy model to build client-specific talent pools.

"It's exciting to see Everest Group recognize us as a leader in technology workforce solutions. Our people and Centers of Excellence are at the heart of helping clients modernize, innovate, and prepare for AI-driven transformation, while our services focus — driven by our AI & Data COE and our COE for App Dev, Design, DevSecOps, and QA — is paving the way forward," saidKye Mitchell, Head of Experis U.S. "This Leader recognition from Everest Group reinforces our commitment to driving customer success in an ever-evolving digital world."

The assessment also recognized Experis' significant focus on leveraging AI, analytics, and automation to enhance both client and candidate experiences:

- For clients: Real-time visibility into talent pipelines, operational metrics and tailored labor market and talent engagement insights – with near-term plans for agentic AI-based sourcing solutions.
- For candidates: The proprietary Experis PowerSuite ™ platform delivers job-specific guidance, automated updates and real-time chatbot interaction.

"Experis has further solidified its positioning as a Leader. It showcased strong resilience in a challenging staffing market and continued to make strategic investments to further strengthen its offerings portfolio. It continued to focus on the AI, analytics, and automation space through dedicated proprietary platforms including the Experis PowerSuite ™ technology stack. Its vision for expanding and building expertise in IT services through dedicated Centers of Excellence (COEs) and comprehensive talent development solutions has helped it retain its market leading position," Priyanka Mitra, Vice President, Everest Group, said.

The PEAK Matrix® Assessment is Everest Group's annual evaluation of contingent staffing providers based on market success, delivery capability, vision and strategy, innovation, investments, and delivery footprint. Of the 30 companies assessed, Experis is one of only seven named to the Leader category in 2025.
