Yoav Michaely Departing Manpower Inc. to Pursue Other Opportunities

MILWAUKEE, WI, USA, February 28, 2007 – Manpower Inc. (NYSE: MAN) announced that Yoav Michaely, Executive Vice President of Global Operational Effectiveness, will be leaving the company to pursue other opportunities, effective today.

“Over the past 21 years, Yoav has been an important part of the company’s growth and expansion into new services and we truly appreciate his contributions,” said Jeffrey A. Joerres, chairman and CEO of Manpower Inc. “We wish him well as he moves on to pursue new challenges and opportunities in the next phase of his career,” he added.

Since he joined the company in 1985, Michaely led Manpower operations of increasing responsibility in various countries and regions. He began his Manpower career as Technical Division Manager for Manpower Israel, earning promotions to Operations Manager in 1987 and Country Manager of the Israeli operation in 1989. He then served as Regional Director for Southern Europe for three years, managing the company’s operations in Israel, Spain, Italy, Greece and Portugal. From 1999 - 2005, he led the company’s EMEA region that includes Europe (excluding France and its satellite operations), the Middle East and Africa and he culminated his career with the company as Executive Vice President of Global Operational Effectiveness.
